

An early morning list

17Oct2020

My offering for today is a list of reasons one might find oneself sitting in front of a computer at 4:49am enjoying the thinkies instead of, you know, sleeping:

- I ate cereal at 9:00pm
- The movers come in two days and we are only somewhat ready
- I can't stop thinking of things I'd like to write about
- I have utterly failed at actually starting to write those pieces
- Folks who actually believe in crap like QAnon are nevertheless allowed to vote and raise children
- I'm only about halfway through making planned Christmas gifts and it's mid-October and we're in the midst of a move
- It might rain this morning, just when I planned to make a pickup haul of my stash of good project wood
- We don't have any ice cream
- The dog needs to go out
- The dog needs to come back in
- And some other stuff

Seems like I've had too many nights of good sleep and the world decided I needed to be reminded who was in charge.

Turns out, not me.
